TREATMENT FOR MOTHERS IS PREVENTION FOR CHILDREN

- The average cost for one year in DAAC's Perinatal Day Treatment Program is $15,300.
- The average cost to society of one child growing up in a drug abusing family in medical, legal & social costs is $90,000 or 6 times the cost of treatment.
- Sonoma County spends $11 million per year for the foster care system ~ much of which is attributable to parental alcohol & other drug use.
- The cost for raising a single child with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome is $1.9 million.
